QUOTE OF THE WEEK: It is not the actual physical exertion that counts towards one's progress, nor the nature of the task, but by the spirit of faith which it is undertaken. -St. Francis Xavier

REFLECTION: Humility and Gratitude

"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." John 15:5 What a great little reminder... "Without me you can do nothing." At first, hearing this may hurt. It may hurt our pride and we may react to this idea negatively. Is it really true? Can we really do nothing without God? Obviously, the answer to that is "Yes." Jesus does not lie. We can do nothing without God in our lives. In fact, if God were to forget us for one moment, we would cease to exist. Even our very existence depends upon God continuing to will that we exist. And as for doing good, making a difference, having a productive life, etc., we can do nothing good without God's grace. Though this may be hard to hear at first, we should ponder it regularly. And if we do ponder it and embrace this truth, two things will happen in our souls. First, we will grow in humility. Humility is the most important virtue in which we can grow. It's been referred to as "the mother of all virtues." This is because from this virtue all other virtues flow. Humility means we realize that God is everything and that we need Him with a 100% need. This humble truth will enable us to seek God in all things and invite Him deeply into every part of our lives. A second thing that will happen in our souls when we realize that we can do nothing without God is that we will grow in gratitude. As we see that God is everything AND we begin to see that He provides us with constant grace in our lives, our only appropriate response will be "Thank you!" We will be grateful to God for everything because we will realize that everything that is good is a gift from Him. Reflect, today, upon these truths of humility and gratitude and allow them to sink in. As you do, allow these virtues to grow to greater fruition in your life.

Lord, I do believe that I can do nothing without You. Help me to believe this with an even greater conviction and, as I do, help me to grow in humility and gratitude. Jesus, I trust in You. – My Catholic Life

MAY 1ST FEAST OF SAINT JOSEPH THE WORKER:

In this Year of Saint Joseph we offer a friendly reminder that May 1, this Saturday is the Solemnity of Saint Joseph the Worker. In these days of a global pandemic where work has taken on a different meaning for so many let us seek the intercession of the faithful Blessed Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the foster father of Jesus to guide and protect us. We have gathered various devotions and resources on a diocesan Saint Joseph webpage that you will find here: www.halifaxarmouth.org/Saint-Joseph

The Catholic Bishops have also developed a webpage with a variety of material to help renew a devotion to Saint Joseph. Of particular note are a series of reflective video that highlight the qualities of Saint Joseph as explored by Pope Francis in his apostolic letter, Patris corde. PASTOR'S MESSAGE: Throughout the Scriptures, we find different periods when people went through trying times when God's people were called to endure, and for most, they came through it stronger and closer to God and one another. Things had been looking better, and it felt a bit like the flood waters that Noah experienced were receding. And now the waters are rising again. This is not a time to be frightened or anxious. St. Paul reminds us to "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God." (Philippians 4:6). We must remember that the Lord is in charge and that He, in His mercy, is watching over us. Rather than fright, it's important to turn to prayer and be strong in our faith and be patient and trusting during this time. God is with us in all this. Know that you are in my prayers. Fr. Henry Smolenaars
